

PRESS RELEASE

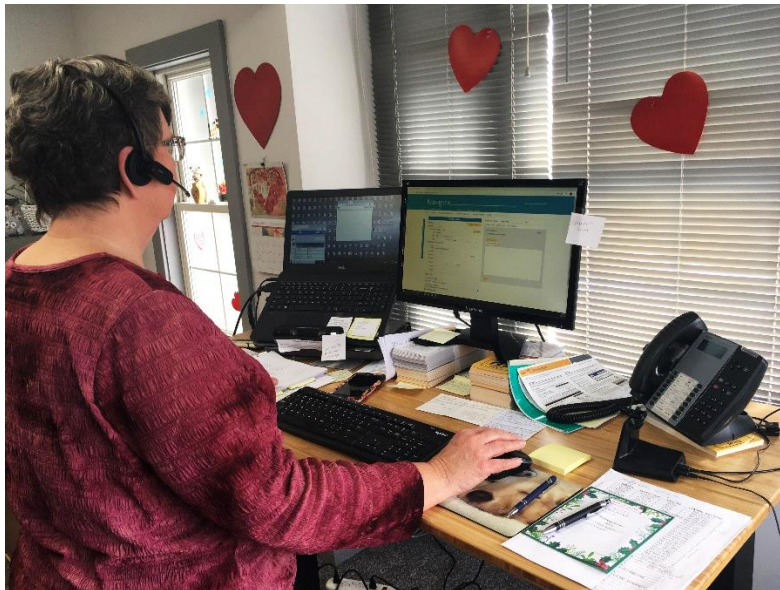

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: February 11, 2020

Today is national 2-1-1 Day

United Way of St. Clair County wishes everyone a Happy 211 Day! 211 Day is February, 11th every year. On this day, 211 call centers all across the nation will be celebrating 211 awareness. 211 makes a difference in the lives of millions of Americans every year.

211 is a free, easy-to-remember telephone number that connects people in need with people who can help. 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Do you need help paying a utilities bill, finding housing, buying food, accessing job training, navigating veterans' services, or dealing with an emergency or crisis? Call, text, chat, or email 211 today to speak with a specialist. They'll make sure you've got a plan, and put you in touch with the right resources. Help is available in 180 languages.

211 is provided by United Way of St. Clair County. Get Connected. Get Help. www.uwstclair.org/211
