Start the holiday with a Breakfast Shindig. UWSCC will host their St. Patrick's Day Drive-thru Breakfast in their parking lot on March 17, 2021 between 7:30am and 9:00am. They invite you to cruise through their FUNdraiser and celebrate the Irish in You with a curbside pick-up meal, spirited swag, and bountiful cheer. Registration for the breakfast is $13.95 per person through March 13th and is available through their website: uwstclair.org. Chef Mike and his team will be preparing scrambled eggs, bacon, sausage, breakfast potato casserole, a homemade cinnamon roll with festive green frosting, and your choice of orange juice, Irish cream coffee, or regular coffee. An array of fun St. Patrick's Day necklaces, bracelets, buttons, and headbands are also for sale on the registration page for $1 and $5 each. Purchases can be picked up in the breakfast drive-thru or at the United Way office, 1723 Military Street, Port Huron.

These accessories and raffle tickets will also be available for cash purchases as you drive through the celebratory event.

Time is running out to join in on the festivities and test your luck for your very own pot of gold at the end of the rainbow! Don't forget to tune in to The Paul Miller Show, WPHM 1380AM, on St. Patrick's Day from 6am to 10am for interviews with our Partner Agencies and some lively Celtic music reeling on the air waves in-between!
